

Endowment Highlights ~ 2011

During 2011, gifts totaling over $475,000 were added to the named endowments. Moreover, the named endowment pool grew by an additional $250,000+, as a result of deposits to custodial-fund accounts which participate in that pool. During 2011, six Disciples congregations established custodial funds with the Foundation, as outlined on the reverse side of this page. (See "Custodial Funds ~ 2011").

Within the named endowments, the South Side Christian Church Endowment fund was established in November 2011, benefiting OASIS (Older Adult Services and Interfaith Sharing), Phillips Theological Seminary, and ministries serving children and youth.

The mission of the foundation is to sustain an enduring financial basis for Christ's ministry through the prudent investment of funds to ensure a legacy of Christian principles and institutions.

Disciple Club Gifts

Disciple Club gifts underwrite the operation of the foundation. They enable us to provide educational opportunities, assist individuals with their stewardship goals, consult with congregations on their gift policies and other programs involving permanent funds.

ODF Staff News

Oklahoma Disciples Foundation is pleased to announce Kim Turner Smith of Tulsa will join our staff as part-time Associate Development Director on April 1. Kim comes to this position with twelve years of solid experience in banking and financial services, including training and consulting with financial institutions.

A native of Arkansas, her BSE degree in Science (High Honors) is from the University of Arkansas, and her Master's degree in Telecommunication Management (Honors) is from Oklahoma State University.

Living in Tulsa, Kim's primary responsibility will be in serving the Northeast Area of Oklahoma offering the ministry of ODF to individuals and churches. Her background uniquely prepares her to give workshops and financial seminars at churches to help donors and potential donors learn more about planned giving and financial planning in general.

Kim and her family are active members of Yale Avenue Christian Church, Tulsa, where her husband, Will, serves as the Associate Minister to Youth.
